WILSON'S CHOICE FOR CHAIRMAN

Representative Doremus, of Michigan, Heads Congressional Committee.

Washington, June 28 .- The Damongressional committee to-night Representative Doremus, of ichigan, chairman and agreed to cooperate with the Democratic National mittee in the coming midpresiden-

Mr. Doremus is understood to have been President Wilson's choice to head the party's congressional campaign organization. He was elected by a vote of 30 to 24, after several months of lively skirmishing for the post, with perfessitative Cline, or Indiana; Representative Sabath, of Minols; Moyd, of Missouri, the retiring chairman, and Ohio, prominently mentioned quarters of the congressional com in the last campaign. He said described by pen or tongue! for planning the coming cam-ides the chairman, the other offiana: Senator Chamberlain, Oregon, ator Hollis, New Hampshire; Rep-ntative Goldfogle, New York; Rep-ntative Haker, California.

retary. Representative Pepper. Assistant Secretary, Representative

f that post and now also sergeant-tarms of the House. Representative Flood, of Virginia, ow treasurer, will be succeeded by a sember to be appointed by Chairman boremus. On the suggestion of Repre-Covington, of Maryland Doremus was directed to ommittee, including Mr. Doremus as hairman, to co-operate with five memers of the Democratic National Committee as a joint committee in charge f the political campaigns.

Representative Paimer, of Pennsyl-

Representative Paimer, of Pennsyl-ania, as a member of both the na-tenal and congressional committees, aid the former realized the "tran-cendent importance" of the congres-tenal campaign in 1914. He said there hould be a systematic campaign of ducation with a view to the country's upport of the bemocratic President and Democratic campaigns throughout he country during the next four years. he country during the next four years. Senator Johns suggested that all were working for Democratic victory, argued for effective harmonious peration. Senators Stone, Gore and Smith, of Arizona, joined in this

AMUSEMENTS.

Special Local Data for Vesterday.

12 Local Data for Vesterday.

13 of his personality, but several

14 company played admission of the enterior of the enteri

Scientific Exhibition, Not a Show,

ments le the synchronisation of sights Galveston and sound.

Scientifically these talking pictures. Hatteras Haves are wonderful as a show they are fast stale, and oppromished. Men had women speak, sing, smash plates play violins, corners and other musical in New Coleans struments, dogs bark, goors slam bells New Coleans struments, dogs bark, goors slam bells New Coleans had suffered and motion, but taneousness of line and motion, but the subjects are all irresonment of the subjects are all irresonment of the subjects are all irresonment of the subjects are all irresonments. Several farces a lot of bufforders. Several farces a lot of bufforders.

There will be performances at 2.30 and 8.36 every day during the week Any one of them is well worth see. ing-for four or five minutes.

Over 5,000,000 NULIFES BIG OIL COMPANY are now being worn!

The secret of

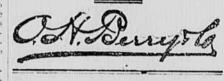

can only be found out by wearing one. The sensation of enhilaration cannot be armony prevailed throughout totree proceedings. The organization completed and everything is now you work and does its work while you rest.

hee-chairmen Representative Cline, you to breathe yourself back to robustness, a full chest and health!

For men, women and children the benefits are immedidren the benefits are immedi-sergeant-at-arms, Joseph J. Sinnott. Virginia, for fourteen years holder ate. In ordering simply state sex, height and weight.

> Special price—$2. Ask for booklet.

GO ON WITH STRIKE

They Refuse to Listen to Propositions Made by Employers.

rode the decision of the local business manager, John Riesenherger, and also that of B. A. Larger, international secretary of the Garmert Workers' Union, who warned the workers that the strike

CONDITIONS IN IMPORTANT CITIES.

SECURES CHARTER

Here With Capital of $21,000,000.

A $21,000,000 oil corporation was of the law firm fling the papers, H. H. Chalkley, E. B. Flippen and O. Raymond Brown. The capital stock has a minimum of $1,000 and a maximum of $21,000,000. It is undersfood that the new corporation, while holding a Virginia charter, will operate generally through the East as a branch or ally of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company, which press reports indicate has recently been taken over by the Rothschilds with

Amendment to charter Monroe Terrace Corporation, Richmond, changing provision for preferred stock.

Hagan Coal & Coke Co. (Inc.), Bristol. Capital, $50,000 to $100,000. C. F. Hagan, president; A. B. Whitaker, vice-president; R. W. Kelly, secretary and treasurer—all of Britsel. and treasurer—all of Bristol.

The Harris Mountain Schools, Floyd.
No capital. P. C. Clark, president,
Salem; B. M. Hagan, secretary, Chris-

NULIFE simply enables tansburg; D. J. Woods, treasurer Amendment to charter Emporia, Ice and Refrigerating Corporation, Empo-ria, increasing capital stock from $25, > Tuscarora Club, Danville No cap-il. Eugene Withers, president. W. Swann, secretary; John P. Swanson -all of Danville.

>
> Virginia Silica Rock and Sand Corporation, Falls Mills, Capital, $50,000, J. H. Wingate, president, Ronnoke; S. Walton, vice-president, W. W. Cline, secretary and treasurer—both of Falls Mills.

Amusement Corporation Capital, $2,000 to $10,000 H. C. Richardson, president, T. A. Hatch, vice-president; R. H. Richard-son, secretary—all of Richmond

IN POLICE COURT

Trio of Blind Tiger Sharks Given Taste of the Rough by Crutchfield. Earnest Bowles, Hudson John and Richard Shearn, all colored arrested for selling liquor without a license on Sunday, were fined $100 and costs, given sixty days in jail and required to post $500 bond for twelve months when arraigned before Justice Crutchfield in Police Court yesterday morning. P. Craven, arrested for torturing eg, was fined $20 and costs. An all was noted, on Bibbs was fined $20 and costs made to give $100 bond for six

James Faison, colored, arrested for lisorder on a street car, was fined $20 and costs and made to post $100 bond sixty days.

James Burrell, colored, charged with dames Burrell, and resisting Officer DENIAL IS MADE OF Mary Phagan, fourteen years old, The H T L T Weather the barement of the National Perfection factory, voril 27, will be set for June 30, a cording to the statement of Solicitor-General Hugh M. Dorsey today. The defense however, may ask for and secure a brief postponement buffling morder mystery will come to trial soon. Frank was the superin-tendent of the factory where the girl's bod, was found. His former home was in Brooklen, and it was recently reported that the solicitor-acheral had gone there to inquire into the defendant's past life. Solicitor Dorday, denied this report

It is seen and literally pushed and the first state of the first state

MAYOR APPROVES GARAGE MEASURE

Pierce Oil Company Incorporated Signs Ordinance Providing for Alienists and Neurologists Dis- Two Gunners Killed While Firing Danger Signals at Automobile Entrances.

After hearing the Ordinance Commitgranted a Virginia charter by the tee's reasons for enacting of the meas-State Corporation Commission yester- ure, Mayor Ainslie yesterday afternoon day. The papers filed by Munford, signed and returned to City Clerk Ben jeopardized seriously for a time when Hunton, Williams & Anderson, give C. T. August the Puller ordinance requiring a red flag by day and a red light troduced into the discussion. Hunton, Williams & Anderson, give C.
A. Plerce, of New York, as president.
The other incorporators are employes of the law firm filing the papers. H. city as a warning of danger to persons passing the doorway. The ordinance met with violent opposition from garge owners, who pleaded their side minimum of $1,000 and a maximum of $21,000,000. It is undersfood that the new corporation, while holding a Virginia charter, will operate generally through the East as a branch or ally of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company, which press reports indicate has recently been taken over by the Rothschilds with a view of fighting the Standard Oil Company.

Other charters were issued by the Corporation Commission yesterday as follows:

Amendment to charter Monroe Terrace Corporation, Richmond, changing provision for preferred stock.

Hagan Coal & Coke Co. (Inc.), Bristol.

Hagan Coal & Coke Co. (Inc.), Bristol.

Hagan, president, A. B. Whitaker, vice-president, R. W. Kelly, secretary and treasurer—all of Bristol.

The Harris Mountain Schools, Floyd.

No capital. P. C. Clark, president. Salem; B. M. Hagan, secretary: Christon of the sidewalk.

Navor Ainslie's absence, and then before the bill in Mayor Ainslie's absence, and then before the Mayor himself.

Being a so-called penalty ordinance, it will become effective after it has been published by the City Clerk for five consecutive days. Mr. August will begin publication this afternoon, Information of the provisions of the law will entail a penalty of a fine of from $100 to $25 for each violation, each day the omission is allowed counting as a separate offense. The ordinance provides, in addition to the display of the danger signals, that drivers of vehicles cutering and leaving garages shall, give warning of their approach in such a way as not to collide with persons plassing on the sidewalk.

No capital. P. C. Clark, president. Salem; B. M. Hagan, secretary: Christon of the garage owners last Saturday morning. In explaining to the More of the provision for preferred stock.

Mayor Ainslie's absence, and then be-tein did what the men dress for? "All men differ with both of you." All men differ with both of y

Mayor Ainslie heard the protests of the garage owners last Saturday morning. In explaining to the Mayor the reasons for the enactment of the ordinance members of the Ordinance Committee said yesterday that the step was taken after many complaints of the danger from garage entrances had been made. The members dealers in the step of the danger from garage entrances had been made. The members dealers in the step of the danger from garage entrances had been marked. been made. The members declared that they had no desire to impose unnecessary hardships on the garage owners. but considered that the danger to hu-man life and limb fully justified the action taken. The red flag, so objec-tionable to the garage owners, can be decorated with any lettering or orna-mentation pleasing to the garage owner, they said.

(Continued From First Page.) ence of the new Commissioner of Imready has affected the present admin-

Leon Bibbs was fined $20 and costs and made to give $100 bond for six months.

"If President Wilson believes in the Mann act and does his duty, he will appoint a new Commissioner-General of Immigration, on the ground that the present commissioner has used his political and official influence to premier to the present commissioner has used his political and official influence to premier the second trial under the Mann act for speedy trial under the Mann act for one of the most horrible of all offenses, the ruination of a young girl. Has the President the name President the nerve to do this? I do from California intends to take aggressive part in the Caminetti case, although Senator Works to-day drafted resolution calling upon the President for the papers in the case. Senator Perkins said that he thought it was better taste for him to refrain

Mr. Vilas first tried his flying boat sound, shot north a few hundred feet, turned, and then slowly arose to a height of 200 feet. It sailed in a graceful circle, and then swooped down upon the water again, stopping almost exactly in the starting place. Vilas (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) s a wealthy young Chicagoan, and is he first man to own and operate a lying boat. The craft is beautifully finished. It is forty feet wide, twenty-

Axson, of Savannah, Ga. The anniversary will be celebrated in the White House with an informal tea to their intimate friends in the afternoon and by a family dinner at

The Misses Jessie and Eleanor Wilson are both at home to enjoy the festivities with their parents, but Miss Margaret Wilson, the President's eldest daughter, is visiting in the West.

Wedding gifts have arrived from many of their close friends, while the White House is fairly awamped with the flowers friends have sent.

WOMEN'S DRESS

cuss Styles in Feminine Apparel.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Chicago, June 23.—The harmony of the alienists and neurologists' convention in the Hotel Sherman to-day was "The present style in feminine wear-ing apparel is an outrage," said Dr. H. C. R. Norriss, of Enderlin, N. B.

before marriage."
Insanity cannot be cured by an op eration, according to Dr. E. M. Green, chief surgeon of the Georgia State Hospital for the Insane at Milledge-ville. The alienists will continue their session to-morrow and Wednesday.

Bout Sinks Mysteriously.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Gloucester, Mass. June 23.—Several thousand dollars' worth of instiguments were almost totally destroyed when the wireless experimenting boat used by John Hays Hammond, Jr., was mysteriously sunk at her moorings last night. All efforts to ascertain the cause of the boat sinking have proved fruitless, and young Hammond himself cannot explain.

Taft Receives Degree.
Clinton, N. Y., June 23.—Form President William H. Taft was amothose who received honorary degrat the one hundred and first commen ment of Hamilton College this afrancon, the trustees having awarded a degree of doctor of civil laws year. He was to have received degree at the centennial celebrat of the college last year, but was a vented from being present.

The "Enduring One" Says She Will Give Matrimony a Week's Trial.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

New York, June 13.—Five-forty-five this morning at the Hotel Plaza in a small room acing a battery of flashlight artists.

Facing them, with a background of filles of the valley a little baldheaded small-featured man, in frock coat, and a young woman—an intense brunette—wearing a sail the value of value of the value of value of the v Fiorida.

WITH PLYING BOAT

WI

That the "voyage" was an unqualified success from Mr. Straus's point of view could easily be seen, even before theship came to land.

While still yet some distance off, he was seen to wave his hand.

"Wonderfull" he exclaimed, adding when asked for a description: "too fine to express in words. It is undoubtedly the sport of the future."

Miss Bailey and Miss Thompson were equally enthusiastic.

"The only thing I regret." said the latter. "Is that we didn't go high enuogh I begged Mr. Vilas to go higher, but the roar of the propeller was so great that he could not hear me."

Mr. Vilas first tried his flying boat

ANOTHER ONE GONE

bed. It is forty feet wide, twenty-feet long, and is equipped with an the White House drive almost to the CAUSE DEATH OF TWO WOMEN | igan.

VISIT IS MARRED

Salute to President Poincare.

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] Cherbourg June 23 -- President Poincare's visit to London was marred at arrival at this city two gunners were killed and two wounded by the burst- occasion he kept his audience in ing of a gun as a salute of welcome was fired. The President arrived here this afternoon to board the French battleship Courbet, where he will but a singing comedian; to hear spend the night in the Cherbourg

The Courbet will leave te-morrow Spithead England at 1 P. M. This is the first state visit of the French executive since he assumed office. He We are the wholesale and retained to the control of the contr will be the guest of the English gov-crament until Friday. As the Courbet arrives at Spithead a fleet of sixteen British battleships and cruisers will meet the visitor and after a salute befitting his rank will act as a guard of honor up the harbor.

Since precedent prohibits the King from going further than the railway station to meet a visitor, no matter what his rank, the Duke of Connaught will welcome President Poincare in will welcome President Poincare in behalf of King George, Extensive preparations have been made for President Poincare's stay, and many state dinners, receptions and offer so

TOO MUCH TURKEY TROTTING

Prencher Attempts to Stem Tide With Model Dance Hall.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Middletown, Cohn. June 23.—In an effort to stem the tide of popularity of the turkey trot, the tange and other modern dances, Rev. George B. Gilbert, rector of an Episcopal church here, has leased the dancing payillon at Lake View Park, a resort near here, and will conduct it as a model dance hall during the summer, the first dance being held to-night. Leading socieety women from this city have promised their co-operation and acted as chaperons at to-night's functions.

STAKES ARE HIGH

Gambling in Windsor Palace Despite Royal Edict.
(Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.)
London, June 23.—London's loftiest society to-night is discussing with animation the high-stakes gambling that took place within the sacred precincts.

The ministers who have publicly that customarily goes on in the castle during the Ascot party. This year Her Majesty requested that poker and baccarat should not be played, and sle set a strict limitation upon the points at bridge. Then, too, both of Their Majesties refused to enter into any sort of gaming, and so the tables in the white drawing room, the room usually used for cards, were practically deserted on the last night of the race meet the grand duke, who is widely known as one of the most inveterate gamblers among European royalty, asked half addern guests to his suite to play baccarat after Their Majesties had retired. The party did not break up until after 4 the next morning. Prince Arthur of Connaught lost $2,500, Lord Granard, the husband of Beatrice Mills, of New York, lost $2,900, while the grand duke won $7,500. This is believed to have been the biggest "game" in Windsor since the reign of George IV.

Funeral of Mrs. Burchell. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Serryville, Va., June 22.—The funeral of Mrs. Martha Burchell, widow of Foster Burchell, was held on Sunday from the residence of James Kerfoot, Rev. Julian Broaddus officiating. Mrs. Burchell was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Sowers, of Clarke County, and is survived by two sons. Albert, of Martinsburg, W. Va.: Forster, of Clarke County, and one daugh-Washington, June 23 - President ter, of Clarke County, and one daughter, Mrs. Lillie Greiner, of Baltimore Wilson smashed another White House Md. Interment was made in Green Interment was made in Green Hill Cemetery.

Bareheaded, Mr. Wilson walked out the White House drive almost to the gate to say good-by to A. Popham look, colonial secretary for Bermuda, and is equipped with an eight-cylinder 100-horse power engine. It makes fifty-five miles in water and sixty-five in the air.

Wedding Anniversary in White House To-Day [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Washington, June 23.—Twenty-cight years ago to-morrow Woodrow Wilson married Miss Ellie Lou Axson, of Savannah, Ga. The anni-

Fayetteville, N. C., June 23.—An electrical storm passed over this city before day this morning, lightning striking the plant of the Fayetteville Woodenware Company, destroying it and causing a loss of $26,000 and causing the death of Cora McLean, a negro girl, who died from fright. Following the first fire a small tenement was destroyed by the flames and a negro woman, Rose Cromartie, was burned to death. She had escaped from the building, but went back for an insurance policy and was overcome. The last fire is thought to have been of incepdiary origin,

Harry Lauder Preaches

A special in the dailies from Bristol, England, says: Harry Lauder attempted to preach before a large congregation in Greencastle Congregational Church, but he is so naturally witty and humorous that on this highest glee.

Harry Lauder is not a preacher, his records will convince you of his inimitable style, and every

We are the wholesale and retail distributors of all Victor goods.

power of their unselfish co-operation to the side of this endeavor to make

SELDEN—Died, suddenly early Sun-day morning, June 22, at his home at Mitchells, Culpèper County, Va., SAUNDERS SELDEN, son of the late John A. Selden, of Westover, Funeral THIS MORNING from Main Street Station 9:55 o'clock. In-terment in Hollywood.

POWERS.-Died, at her 20WERS—Died, at her residence, 24e6 Grove Avenue, 2 P. M. Sunday, June 22, 1913, MRS. ARAMITA F. POWERS, wife of Ex-Councilman John T. Powers, in the fifty-third year of her age. She is survived by her husband, one son, Harvey W. Powers, and two brothers, Messis, E. P. and Ryland H. Ford.
Funeral will take place 4 o'clock THIS AFTERNOON from Grove Avenue Baptist Church. Interment in Riverview.

nue Baptist Church. Interment in Riverview.
Following are the pallbearers; Honorary—Messrs. J. B. Minor, H. R. Pollard, Jacob Umlauf, Horace S. Hawes, Judge Samuel W. Williams. Active—Richard W. Jones, C. C. Burgess, A. F. Creath. Robert Scheafer, Jessie A. Ladd, A. W. May-nard, Harry Huber, C. E. Clark.

RUGG.—Died, at his residence, 411
North Seventh Street, Monday morn, ing, EDWIN S. RUGG.
Funeral will be held from Bliley's undertaking parlors, Third and Marshall Streets, TO-DAY at 11 A. M.

Ask you. undertaker. Price, $50,00. Write for booklet. Reinterring a specialty Cement Burial Vault Co.

OF RICHMOND, INC., Phone County 3204. P. O. Box 932.